Boys and Parents: We offer every young man the opportunity to have a great time having lots of fun, while learning personal responsibility, strengthening his sense of self reliance, building confidence and learning leadership skills and teamwork. The Scouting program is designed to strengthen our boy's character, and through action and example, develops citizenship, spirituality, environmental awareness, and community service spirit. Scouting enhances each boy's physical, mental and moral development. Remember: every boy who puts in the effort can become an Eagle!
